Position Introductions

Caller

The Caller's position is to be the Bingo Hall's "MC" for the session he or she is working. This person is the orchestrator, director and visible key to the success of the session. The Caller has the responsibility of tying all aspects of the session together. The Caller also promotes the "One Big Happy Family" feeling which Carousel Bingo tries to project to both our customers and employees alike.

Cashier

The Cashier's main responsibility is to sell bingo packages and to reconcile Floorworker sales and other transactions. The Cashier position is an important one at Carousel Bingo because our Cashiers are one of the first people that the customer has direct contact with. Cashiers must create a friendly and helpful first impression for our customers.

Concessions

The main responsibility of a Concessions Worker is to provide fast and efficient service to the Bingo Hall's customer with the biggest smile and friendliest attitude. The Concessions Worker and his or her performance play a large role in the customers overall image of the Bingo Hall.

Floorworker

The Floorworker's main responsibility is to sell special bingo cards to the customers and to aid new customers in their understanding and enjoyment of the game. The Floorworker's job is very important and can be one of the most rewarding and fun jobs in the Bingo Hall. Floorworkers will have the most direct and constant contact with the bingo customers and are therefore one of the most critical links in the Hall.

Jar (Pulltab) Dealer

The Jar Dealer's main responsibility is to sell pulltabs to the customers. As the Jar Dealer becomes more experienced, they will find that they can serve the customers more quickly during peak periods. As their knowledge and accuracy increases they will serve an ever increasing important role in keeping the Bingo Hall's customers satisfied and happy.
